

4th European Conference on private security services (Madrid 14-15 October 2004)

BY JERZY KONIECZNY, Former Polish Internal Affairs Minister, Professor in Criminology, Poland

SUMMARY OF HIS SPEECH

The introductory speech:

1. Development of the private security sector in Poland before and after the accession to the EU.
2. Legal situation of the private security sector (on the example of Poland) and the recommendations of the Council of Europe.
3. The need for and possible forms of international exchange of expertise.

The statement: A proposal to create a European Institute of Private Security Studies.

*

*

*